

Fire Warden

Employers have a legal requirement to nominate a sufficient number of competent persons to implement procedures to ensure the safe evacuation of persons from their premises.

This course has been designed for those who will be undertaking this role and will provide them with the knowledge that they required in order to fulfill their duties.

Available Regulators

Ofqual

Qualification Number: 600/9799/1

Title: STA Level 2 Award For Fire Marshall Training (QCF)

Credit Value: 1 Credit

Pre-Requisites

Be 16 years of age or older

Validity of Award

This qualification is valid for 3 years.

Length of Course

4 Recommended Guided Learning Hours

Course Information

This qualification covers:

Understand the hazards and risks associated with fire in the workplace

Understand how fire risk is controlled in the workplace

Understand the principles and practice of fire safety management at work

Understand the role of the nominated fire warden

Be aware of key fire safety duties

Be able to recognise habitual human behaviour in a fire situation

Know the typical role of a fire warden in relation to workplace fire safety

Be aware of how to prevent fire or limit its impact

Recognise the need for fire drills and pre-planning for fire

Be able to identify a range of portable fire extinguishers

Live fire extinguisher training (optional)

Mandatory Units

Fire Safety Principles

Assessment Criteria

Continual assessment by the course tutor

Complete worksheet questions to the satisfaction of the course tutor